

We celebrate a funeral liturgy to honor our friends and relatives. As Catholics, we celebrate the funeral at Church to commend our loved one to the Lord, trusting in his promise to prepare a place for us in heaven.

You have been asked to give the Words of Remembrance. Realizing that you are dealing with your own grief we would like to offer the following:

At St. Rita Church we allow Words of Remembrance at the funeral. The length should not be longer than five (5) minutes. If the family and friends would like to have more opportunities to speak, a small service at the funeral home at the end of calling hours presents a nice opportunity for this sharing.

Tips for a Good Words of Remembrance

- Do . . . Pray about it
- Do . . . present the person's life in light of our gospel values (How did he/she model good living?) The funeral liturgy is a solemn occasion. Save other stories for the reception.
- Do . . . have the entire remarks written down. This allows you to
 - Organize your thoughts
 - Time it
 - Rehearse it before others
 - Give a copy to the Family and Friends

Things to Avoid

- Don't . . . Feel you have to accept this responsibility. If you do not feel emotionally or otherwise able to deliver the eulogy please let the family know. You may wish to offer to help in another way.
- Don't . . . Tell a long story or several short stories. Experience shows that long stories are often best saved for later in a more individual setting.
- Don't . . . Think you have to tell everything there is to know about the person. Pick one theme and focus on it.
- Don't . . . Tell inside jokes that will not be understood by some or use inappropriate language.

When you arrive at the church or funeral home, introduce yourself to a member of the parish staff. The staff person can show you where to stand and tell you when you will be speaking.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to call the Pastoral Minister coordinating this funeral:

Words of Remembrance:

How to Honor the Deceased

Or are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection.
