

Family Faith Formation + Classroom Absences: Session Options

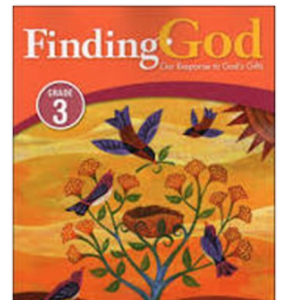

Both options will be emailed to you every Monday, with all links included.

You will need:

- An adult participating with your child(ren).
- An internet connected device.
- The link to the weekly Google Form from your email.
- Your child(ren)'s Finding God book(s).
- An hour of your time.

OPTION 1: BY THE BOOK

- Engage in a Finding God session as a family at your convenience.
- For your session together as a family, you can choose one:
 - A detailed family guide for each grade level.
 - Parent Quick Guide for multiple grade levels together.
- To report attendance – your child can choose either of the following:
 - Interactive Session Review Game (online quiz)
 - Write 2 things you learned this week.

OPTION 2: MIX IT UP

- A mix of your Finding God book and a little family fun.
- What to expect:
 - The weekly Google Form will give you step-by-step instructions for your family.
 - Each session will include family prayers, activities, games, and/or discussions.
 - Each session will direct you to read the Explore pages of Finding God together.
 - Use the Google Form to report your child's attendance each week.

If you want an offline experience, please see Anne Thomas for a hard copy of your family guide, and to discuss your preferred method of reporting attendance.
